Pastor's Ponderings

... A Time to Welcome, and a Time to Grow...

In the Book of Ecclesiastes, the Teacher writes, “For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven...a time to sow and a time to reap....” Sowing and reaping are certainly critical steps in yielding a harvest; yet there’s another indispensable part of that process: the season of growth. It’s a time-span that requires patience and trust, as we wait to see how Nature and Divine Providence will bless and multiply our efforts. And while there are certain things we can do to enhance the chance for a successful harvest [like weeding and watering], we really can’t speed-up the growth process. That’s where patience and trust come into play.

Summer is just around the corner, and we are entering that long Church Season of Pentecost - which is distinguished by the liturgical [and eco-friendly] color, green. This is a good time to take the time to think about our own growth as individuals and as a family of faith. In response to feedback from our Congregational Survey and our “Where Do We Go from Here?” roundtable discussions, our Church Council has established a “Welcome & Growth” task-force. Throughout the next 12 months, this group will work with our various Ministries and members to develop and implement programs, tasks, and events specifically aimed at increasing our public visibility, welcome, and [subsequent] growth.

Pentecost Sunday [June 4th this year] is considered the “Birthday of the Christian Church” - the day when the Holy Spirit is graciously poured-out upon Jesus’ followers in Jerusalem. With that event, those previously timid believers suddenly found themselves publically proclaiming their faith in new and bold ways, and the Church began to take-off and grow. As the Spirit-filled Body of Christ, we at BUCC have experienced some modest and steady growth over the past decade. However, there is still much more for us to do in carrying forward our stated mission of “Loving, Serving, and Accepting All People with God’s Life-Changing Power.”

There are things that will require our resourceful planning and our active participation. There are other things that will require our steady patience and our unwavering trust in Holy One's wisdom and impeccable timing. Discovering that mature and healthy balance between our working and our waiting, is very much a part of this Season of Pentecost. It can also be a good sign of our genuine and continuing growth - both as individuals, and as a community of faith.

With You in Christ's Service,
Pastor Dave

FINANCE

Attention Counters: When you run tapes, make one of the envelopes and one of the checks. Lately there have been instances where items are missed or the tapes are incorrect. Put the checks in the envelopes so that the amount and number are visible. Then it is possible to run two independent tapes. Thank you for volunteering to count!

PARISH-STAFF RELATIONS/PERSONNEL LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

"We on the PSR and Leadership Development ministries are happy to announce the survey has been completed and was handed out on Sunday, May 4. ►

If you weren't in church to get one, they will be available on the bookcase in the upper commons.

Several comments/questions were posed in the survey answers and it was decided we would try to get some discussion and/or answers to you. A survey response session will take place on Sunday, June 25 in the parlor following the service. Go down to Pilgrim Hall, get your cup of coffee and a goodie and meet with us in the parlor. We will pick out a few of the questions and let you know in the Bulletin a week or two in advance which questions will be taken care of on the 25th. Hope to see you there."

NEWS FROM OCWM

Last month, over 30 bags of food were delivered to Brookside Hunger Center. Thanks go to those BUCC members and friends for their generosity.

Also last month, a box of medical supplies, clothing and other items was sent to the Good Shepherd Orphanage in the Ukraine. Those BUCC members and friends who have been donating aluminum cans participated, because the money for the shipping cost came from redemption of the aluminum cans so generously provided.►

The shipping cost was about sixty dollars, and each can redemption yields about twenty dollars, thus indicating the value of the can donations.

On Sunday, May 14th, an offering was received to benefit Edna House, a safe house for women who are struggling to recover from alcohol and drug dependence.

The money received totaled over one thousand dollars, and clothing, household items, and other items were also received. Thanks to BUCC members and friends for their generosity.

The next hunger meal will be on Sunday, June 4th at Bethany UCC. The menu has not been selected at this writing, but the sign-up board will appear in the narthex, as usual for persons to indicate their interest in serving on the early shift (2:30 to 4:00 PM) or the late shift (4:00 to 6:00 PM). The hunger meal after will not be until August 27th at Pearl Road UMC.

EDNA HOUSE

WAY TO GO! The collection for the benefit of Edna House was a spectacular success. $1477.74 was collected when all the sources were totaled up. In addition, about 25 bags of clothing and other items were donated. Thank all who so generously supported this worthwhile effort to help women overcome dependence on opiates and alcohol.

A NOTE OF THANKS

Dear BUCC Family,

I will be retiring and moving to Florida in a few weeks. I wanted to say thank you to this wonderful, loving congregation for the welcoming way you greeted Vic and I nearly 4 years ago. We felt at home right away. In the years that followed, you gave me strength and love when I needed it most and for that I will always be grateful. I am sad to be leaving BUCC but excited to begin the next chapter of my life.

A special thank you to the patient and compassionate BUCC members who volunteer their time and talents at my school, The International Newcomer's Academy @ Thomas Jefferson. You embody the true spirit of serving others in God's name.

I wish you peace, grace and all of God's blessings, Vicki Szabo
