Pastor's Ponderings

...What We Bring to the Table...

Sometimes when a person is being interviewed for a job, after the reviewing of his or her application, the individual is asked, "What else do you bring to the table?" This question is intended to encourage that individual to share any of those "intangible" qualities she or he may possess - those personal characteristics, gifts or attributes that can't be easily categorized or listed on a resume.

The theme of our 2018 Stewardship Drive is What Shall We Bring? This year, as usual, we will be thinking about the gifts and resources each of us can commit to support the work of our congregation in 2019. Naturally, this includes our financial contributions, as well as our participating in the various ministries that we undertake. But beyond that, there are other things we each "bring to the table." Some bring a special talent for encouraging others when they are struggling or down. Others possess a natural ability to make people feel welcome and included. There are those who are good at music, teaching, leadership, organization, working with finances or fixing things around our building.

There is, however, one other thing that we all "bring to the table." We bring our genuine selves! Each time we celebrate Holy Communion, we come together as One Family, united by the love and grace of our One Sacred Source. We come as equals in the sight of the Holy One, and we make sure that all who are present know that they, too, are honored guests at Christ's Table. And in grateful response to the abundant blessings that our Communion Meal represents, we "take from the Table" a spirit of joy and thanksgiving. Being fed and nurtured together, we are inspired and empowered to work together to serve the Holy One, by serving the people around us.

At our worship service on Sunday, November 11th, we will gather our pledge cards for this coming year, and present them before the Communion Table. Then we will continue our celebration at tables downstairs, with our traditional Thanksgiving Feast in Pilgrim Hall - an event that you won't want to miss! ►

With your generous sharing and the Holy One's abundant blessing, I am confident that we will continue to faithfully spread the Good News of Divine love for us, and for all people!

With you in Christ's service,
Pastor Dave

If you would like to have a pastoral visit in your home, or simply need to talk, please call Pastor Dave at the church office [440-526-4364] or at home [440-546-1193]. He will be glad to meet with you.

FROM THE MINISTRIES OF BUCC

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT MINISTRY

It's the time of year when this ministry needs to staff all the other various ministries with sufficient volunteers to accomplish all the good things we do at Brecksville United Church of Christ. We take this assignment very seriously. It is important to find the right fit for each person and that each volunteer is happy and effective. Our plea to each of you is to contemplate and consider in what ways you can help a ministry and utilize your talents. There is a core of members who do the majority of the tasks in our church. We hope to involve many of you who are newer or haven't had the opportunity yet to participate on a ministry. Please talk with one of the Leadership Development members to discuss where you are needed. We ask that you respond positively when we reach out to include and involve you. An information table will be set up during Coffee Hour in Pilgrim Hall after service on November 4. Stop by and visit.

Thank you for your serious consideration, Kathy Smith, Cliff Cribbs, Carole Snider, Julie Bernard, Bridget Sproul, and Linda Kriynovich

NEWS FROM OCWM

Last month, a hunger meal was served at Iglesia Emmanuel. The entrée was mostaccioli, followed by salad.

Also bread and spread, and assorted beverages were served. Lastly, but certainly not lastly, many cookies were served as dessert. BUCC members and friends turned out in adequate numbers to help (seven on the first shift, who also stayed for the entire day, and an additional four on the second shift). Meals for about 40 persons were served, and seconds and takeaways were provided. Thanks go to all who participated, especially the cookie bakers, who provided an amazing amount of cookies.

The next hunger meal will be served at Pearl Road United Methodist Church on Sunday, November 18th, 2018. Independence United Methodist Church will be partnering with us for that meal. An expected 125 to 150 meals will be served. The sign-up board will be in the narthex for interested persons to indicate their desire to help. The meal will be one week after BUCC's stewardship meal and on the weekend before thanksgiving.

Other than that, the aluminum cans continue to fill the barrel in the lower commons, and the food donations continue to appear in the basket by the church office door.

STEWARDSHIP

Dear Friends,

It has been a pleasure to be your moderator this year. Our family is grateful to be members, here, for the last five years.

The theme of our 2018-2019 stewardship drive is: "What Shall We Bring?" Indeed, how can we return to God the correct portion of all the blessings God has given to each of us?

When we give our funds to our local church community, it is effective and efficient.

It is all about people: people who serve us and people we serve. A significant portion of our operating budget directly provides for our Church Staff. Your Stewardship allows them to continue to serve us.

The other part of our spending is for programs that directly benefit our congregation, our community and the larger world. Without your generosity, these programs would be impossible.

Our ministries do not just need money to operate, but also require our time and talent. At our council meetings, I am touched by all the good work done by this small congregation. We need help from everyone to keep this work going.

In the coming weeks, we will hear from two members of our congregation, please listen to their stories. We will conclude our stewardship campaign on November 11 with a thanksgiving celebration after we make our pledges during our worship service.

So this year, as you consider your stewardship pledge of time talent and treasure, please remember that "you are the light of the world" and that the God's work in this world must truly be our own.

Thank you, in advance, for your generosity.

Peace be with you,

Jim Duffy, Moderator

NOTES AND ASIDES

ADVENT BOOK

If you have not done so yet, please submit your Advent Book entry for inclusion in the 2018-2019 Brecksville United Church of Christ Advent book.

We will be distributing them as soon as all the information is gathered. Thank you!!!

Nov. 5th at 1:00, Parlor, the group will be discussing MY DEAR HAMILTON, a novel recounting the story of Eliza Schuyler Hamilton and supplementing the popular musical version of her husband. This book is good reading and well documented.

FOOD PANTRY

NOVEMBER & DECEMBER Small Canned Hams, Canned Sweet & White Potatoes, Cranberry Sauce, Canned Mixed Vegetables, Pie Crust Mix, Canned Pumpkin, etc.

MUSIC

KLEZMER BAND

Greetings from Brecksville United Church of Christ.

On Sunday November 4 at 4:00 PM, Brecksville UCC will host a free concert featuring Yiddishe Cup Klezmer Band, (also known as Funk A Deli!)

Klezmer music is a hybrid of Eastern European Jewish folk music, American swing, Yiddish theater tunes and Israeli horas.

The ensemble has broadened its musical palette with some rock 'n' roll, Motown, and R&B. Jazz critic Harvey Pekar said, "Yiddishe Cup plays cleanly and enthusiastically. Clearly its members are enjoying themselves." Yiddishe Cup's appearances have included the Chamizal National Memorial, El Paso, Tex.; Chautauqua (NY) Institution; Beloit (Wis.) College; Boca Raton (Fla.) JCC; and the Kent State (Ohio) Folk Festival.

Formed in 1988, Yiddishe Cup is one of the top Klezmer Bands in America.

The ensemble features Bert Stratton, clarinet/saxophone/harmonica; Steve Ostrow, trumpet/trombone/violin; Alan Douglass, keyboards & vocals; Ivan George, drums; Tamar Gray, vocals; and Alice Stratton, dance leader.

A free-will offering will be received, and a light reception will follow the performance. Plan to join us on November 4 for an eclectic program of dance music. Bring a friend, and your dancing shoes!
