AND GRACE

Pastor's Ponderings.....

One of my most poignant moments as a parent came shortly after my son was diagnosed with ADHD (Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder). Ian was struggling to understand what this neurodivergent condition even was. I told him that I was also ADHD; but they didn't call it that when I was a kid. They just called it "bad." But nowadays, they can treat it with medicine instead of beatings.

Ian said, "When I grow up, I want to have a kid with ADHD too." This got my attention.

"Why?" I asked.

"Because," Ian replied, "that way, when my kid is having a bad day, I can listen and tell them that I understand, the way you listen and help me."

Yeah. Sometimes that makes me cry.

I need to be a better listener. I think it's more of a struggle for those of us with ADHD. But it's a skill we can all practice and improve.

LENT

This Lent, our Sunday prayers and scriptures will invite us to "Listen." Samuel said, "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening." Elijah listened for God in "the sound of sheer silence." How to we listen to hear God's still speaking voice? I believe that good pastoral care starts with the pastor being a better listener. How can we all be better listeners? To God? To one another?

That will be our theme for the six Sundays of Lent. Like those prophets of old, let's incline our ears to listen through all the noise, to hear one another, and perhaps hear the voice of the Spirit, gentle, powerful, and still speaking in our time.

LENTEN INTERFAITH SERIES

Listening to diverse perspectives is essential to broaden understanding and friendship. This can help us to build bridges of understanding. With that in mind, this year, we won't do another book study in the parlor. Instead, we will travel to listen our neighbors of other religions. We will visit a different site each week. Our first visit will be to a Buddhist temple in Richfield. At each site, we will have time to learn about their history and core beliefs, we will join in prayer and song according to their tradition, and we will have time for dialogue. If you would like to register for this series, please fill out the form in the bulletin, or call the church office. Those who register will receive updates with times, dates and directions to each of the different interfaith sites.

MAUNDY THURSDAY SEDER MEAL

Rabbi Enid Lader will lead us in Passover Seder Meal at Brecksville UCC on Maundy Thursday. Jesus' Last Supper was a Passover meal, likely a Seder meal. It commemorates the liberation of Israelite slaves from Egypt, as they passed through the waters and began their journey through the desert into the Promised Land. My friend, Rabbi Lader, will guide us through this ancient Jewish tradition, while also teaching and helping us to understand. She will even teach us a bit of Hebrew and help us learn some traditional Jewish songs of worship. There are special roles for the kids too, so please be sure to bring the youngsters too. Save a space on your calendar for BUCC Seder meal, in Pilgrim Hall on April 17, at 6:30 p.m.

RETREAT

We'll gather for our church retreat on Saturday, April 5, starting at 9:30 a.m. This year, our retreat will be led by Rev. Tina Green, from Fairport Harbor United Church of Christ. Her theme will focus on building a community of kindness.

We sense our communities struggling to live with kindness. Whether at city hall, Congress, around the dinner table, or around the communion table, we strive to live with love and acceptance, while also setting safe boundaries against harmful behaviors. Pastor Tina will help us to develop skills that are rooted in Christ, and grounded in practical principles. Clear a space on your calendar for April 5. We expect to finish by 1:30 p.m.

FROM THE MINISTRIES OF BUCC

SOCIAL JUSTICE MINISTRY

The Social Justice Ministry has invited Renee Boronka, Director of Conservation Education & Outreach at Western Reserve Land Conservancy (WRLC), to speak on April 27 about WRLC's work in the Cleveland area to protect our natural resources. In addition, BUCC is partnering with WRLC on May 10 to do the spring clean-up of the Garden of Eleven Angels, a memorial established by WRLC to commemorate the women who were murdered in the Buckeye-Shaker/Mount Pleasant area in Cleveland. More information on the Garden of Eleven Angels can be found here: Healing and Closure Come for Imperial Ave. Residents as Garden of Eleven Angels Memorializes Lives Lost | Western Reserve Land Conservancy
The April Pillar will have more details about both April 27 and May 10.

Little Annie's Hope Train-

This organization is devoted to lending Northeast Ohioans in need of a helping hand while preserving their dignity and worth. We work to remove the stigma of need while remembering to see the person and not the struggle. We do this with the hope that one day those we help will be able to pass on the gift.

Over the next several weeks you will see a box on the pew bench at the parking lot entrance door. Below are several items that you can place in or beside the box and Claudia Griesmer will collect them (regularly) and deliver them to the organization.

There is also a copy of this on the pew bench
More information on the organization (including a link to their Amazon Wish List) can be found at: <https://www.littleannieshopetrain.com/> or <https://www.facebook.com/LittleAnniesHopeTrain>

MUSIC MINISTRY

Seasonal Choir will begin preparing for Holy Week on Thursday March 6 from 7:00-7:45 PM. Practices run weekly during Lent until Palm Sunday, which is scheduled for April 13. The choir will sing during these other Holy Week services: Maundy Thursday (4/17), Good Friday (4/18) and Easter Sunday (4/20).

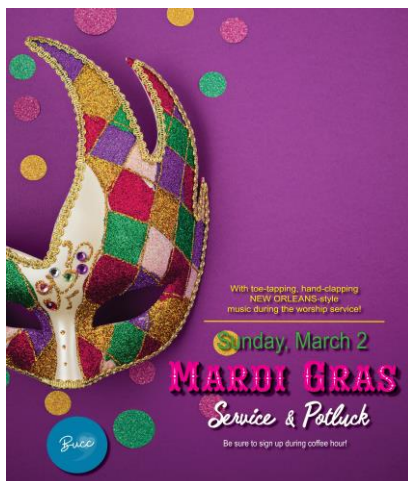

If you enjoy singing in a group setting but don't have time to commit to regular choir, seasonal choir provides a great opportunity for fellowship, good music, and spiritual preparation for the commemoration of events that are central to our Christian faith: Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem; the institution of Holy Communion at the Last Supper; Jesus' betrayal, crucifixion and death; and his ultimate Resurrection on Easter morning. Please consider joining us on our musical/spiritual journey to Holy Week. Vocal part recordings are provided to help with the learning process. High school students are welcome to participate. Contact Dave Debick with any questions.

MUSIC MINISTRY Continued...

On Sunday April 27 at 4:00 PM, Brecksville UCC will host a free concert featuring Windsong, Cleveland's Feminist Chorus. The ensemble is celebrating its 45th anniversary this year. A wide variety of styles is represented in its repertoire, focusing primarily on the role of women in society and their struggle for equality and justice. A free-will offering will be received and a light reception will follow the concert. Please mark this event on your calendar and plan on joining us for a stirring program of music! More information about this concert will be included in April's Pillar, online, and in Sunday bulletins preceding the event.

Sunday March 2 - Mardi Gras Service and Potluck. Enjoy the sounds of a Dixieland Band at our 10:00 am service immediately followed by our annual Mardi Gras potluck.

Soup Supper- Our annual Ash Wednesday soup supper will be held March 5 beginning at 6:30 with the service beginning at 7:00. We are looking for two more soups, including a vegetarian option for approximately 50 guests. An 18 bean soup has already been committed. Attendees with the last names, beginning with the letter A-L can bring bread. M-Z will bring bread for Maundy Thursday. We will have juice, soda and the usual coffee and tea to accompany the meal. Please contact David Pastor at ridave@hotmail.com or 440.552.4403 to commit to making soup or with any questions.

One Great Hour of Sharing - Special Offering Collection will be Sunday March 30

Be The Light -

“Here’s another way to put it: You’re here to be light, bringing out the God-colors in the world. God is not a secret to be kept. We’re going public with this, as public as a city on a hill. If I make you light-bearers, you don’t think I’m going to hide you under a bucket, do you? I’m putting you on a light stand. Now that I’ve put you there on a hilltop, on a light stand—shine! Keep open house; be generous with your lives.” (Matthew 5:14-16, The Message)

One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS) is a vital special mission offering of the United Church of Christ. It connects you to disaster relief, refugee assistance, and development efforts around the globe. When disasters strike, or when individuals are displaced due to violence or poverty, OGHS ensures immediate response and ongoing recovery.

Through your support, OGHS funds comprehensive development programs in areas such as healthcare, education, agriculture, food security, microfinancing, and women's empowerment. By partnering with Global Ministries and international response networks, OGHS maximizes its impact. Your contributions help meet urgent needs while addressing the root causes of vulnerability, ensuring long-term, sustainable solutions for affected communities.
