LOVING, SERVING, AND ACCEPTING
ALL PEOPLE
WITH GOD'S LIFE-CHANGING POWER
AND GRACE

The Reception Sherrill Witt – Moderator

Last month I shared positive news and extended an Invitation for your return to Brecksville United Church of Christ. When we receive an invitation and choose to respond it might be an enthusiastic “Yes!”, a tentative “Yes” or just a “No”. Sometimes a positive response might be based on our desire for community and connection, while our hesitation might be based on the concept of an unsure Reception. Let’s look at “reception” more closely thanks to the Cambridge Dictionary:

(1) A formal social occasion to welcome someone

September 28th we will welcome Rev. Jeffery Jackson as our new Interim Minister. He comes to us having served most recently as the Interim Minister for First Congregational Church in Akron. His background is in both the United Church of Christ and Disciples of Christ churches. Jeff lives in Hiram, Ohio with his wife and is awaiting the birth of a grandchild on September 19th. We hope to have a reception to officially welcome Rev. Jackson to our church and to welcome back members for the coming fall season.

(2) The way in which people react to something or someone new

There is no denying it, things are different now. A new Music Minister may have fresh ideas about our music and its presentation, with which we are unfamiliar, but all music enhances our relationship with God and one another. An Interim Minister may reassure us that we are healthier than we thought and are on the right track, but they are also charged with helping us move forward in ways that might require introspection, communication, and change for the better. As we all begin the return to church let us dwell more on the future than on the past so that we receive each other with joy and hope. If someone has stayed away with intent, their reception should always be “Welcome back, we’ve missed you”. Some recent members who joined in the last 2 years are choosing to stay with us in the belief that the church community they first experienced is still present and robust. We also have new faces who have come to us based on our reputation for radical hospitality – let us not disappoint them.

(3) The degree to which signals (e.g., cellphone, radio, TV – or people!) are strong and clear

Let us make our signals to each other and to the larger community intentional ones filled with the belief in our chosen covenant to worship, work and serve together. Let us continue to be earnest in seeking God's will for us as we honor both our ministry and mission history and our future. Our signals as members in this community of Christ need to be strong, loving and uniform so that the reception is clear and well-received.

Strong signals come from many actions: attendance on Sundays, participation in church events, signing up to usher, greet, bring bread for Communion, set up/clean up for Coffee Hour, pledging – all the little things that keep a church going. No action is too small, all action has meaning.

If your response to the Invitation is "No", that is fine. We will always be here to receive you when you need a place to welcome you, support you, protect you, laugh or cry with you, or just "be". That is what a church community is. The Invitation is always open and the Reception is always ready.

FROM THE MINISTRIES OF BUCC

ADVENT DEVOTIONAL - Yes, you read that correctly! The Spiritual Life Ministry is looking ahead to one of our most beloved BUCC traditions, the annual congregation-written Advent Devotional. In order to compile the booklet, we will begin to offer scriptures for your selection on September 14 after worship.

Simply choose one of the pre-selected scriptures that speaks to you, and tell us why in a couple of paragraphs. Many people also choose to close with a one or two sentence prayer. We especially love to hear how it connects you and/or your family to a certain time or place. You'll be amazed by the stories your fellow members have to share! If you cannot attend worship in person, simply call Miranda in the office during the week and she can help you out. We are asking for your devotion to be submitted to the office at BUCCOffice23@gmail.com by OCTOBER 31.

Be sure to join us as we celebrate our BUCC kids as they embark on their new school year Sunday, September 7. Our amazing choir will return that day as well, so we have lots to be grateful for! We will (of course) start things off with a celebratory potluck with the theme of "Best Dish Ever." Bring your families' favorite! Mark your calendar today!

Are you aware there are worker bees among us? Sherrill Witt has been busy behind the scenes quietly keeping the church humming, along with Miranda Lacefield. These two ladies deserve a shout-out with our thanks!
