Bringing of the Light

Silent Meditation

God of nearness, help us look again.

*Call to Prayer

Leader: Come, people of God—the dawn is breaking! A new day rises where sorrow had settled in.

People: The dawn is breaking— and we rise with it.

Leader: Where burdens have bent us low, the Holy One draws near, steadying our steps.

People: The Holy One draws near— and we gather our courage.

Leader: Where yokes have weighed on shoulders and spirits, God is loosening what has held us down.

People: What held us down is lifting—and we move toward freedom.

Leader: Come, all who yearn for justice; all who hope for healing; all who hunger for joy.

People: We come to the dawning way, we come to the hopeful way, we come to the way God makes glorious.

*Hymn of Praise

Jesus Calls Us, O'er the Tumult

#172

Prayer of Invocation [Unison]

Holy One,

Your light dawns where our shadows are deepest. You are never far; your presence remains with us. Awaken us to the glimmers of your glory breaking into a weary world. Shine upon the paths we walk—paths shaped by fear, uncertainty, and heavy burdens—and reveal where liberation is already taking root among us. As you drew near to Galilee's borderlands, draw near to us today. Open our eyes to your radiance in overlooked places and in one another. Make us ready and courageous, a people who move with your Spirit and join your work of justice and joy. Awaken us, and guide our worship into the brightness of your new day. Amen.

Gathering Song

Glory to God

Pablo Sosa 1988

Glo - ry, glo - ry, glo - ry! Glo - ry to God in the high - est, And on earth be peace to all peo - ple, for God loves us all.

First Reading: Isaiah 9:1–4

But there will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness—on them light has shined.

You have multiplied the nation; you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.

For the yoke of their burden and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

Second Reading: Matthew 4:12–23

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

"Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles-- the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned."

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea for they were fishers. And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fisher of people."

Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them.

Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

Pastoral Prayer

Silent Meditation

The Savior's Prayer: [Unison]

Our Father-Mother, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever, Amen.
